9. Proposition of Messrs. R. Surappa, K. T. Seshaiya and Kondi Srinivasachar, District Board Members, Belur:—

The District Board of Hassan strongly recommends to Government the inclusion of Belur as a Railway Station on the Kadur-Chikmagalur Railway, particularly in view of the railway having been proposed to pass through Magadi (a railway station by itself) a village six miles from Belur, and also in view of the very great importance of Belur as a Coffee-growing Taluk and is, for this purpose, willing to bear the liabilities in the same proportion as the Kadur District Board for the distance to be covered in the Belur Taluk.

After considerable discussion the following resolution was unanimously passed:—

Resolution.—The Board resolves that having regard to the urgency of opening up correspondence in the matter of the proposed railway communication between Kadur and Chikmagalur, via Magadi, as the alignment of the said line is being surveyed and estimates drawn up, the President of the District Board be authorised to request the Government to change the alignment so as to pass via Belur and obtain correct estimates, ascertain the difference of expenditure, the annual commitments that this Board may have to undertake and if he is satisfied that by contributing a sum not exceeding one lakh of rupees, free from annual commitments, the railway line can be made to pass via Belur, he on behalf of the Board be and is hereby authorised to agree to the said financial responsibility.

(b) That the President, District Board, be requested to open correspondence with the District Board of Kadur in the said matter, and if need be, arrange for a joint meeting of the two Boards.

10. Proposition of Mr. K. Ramanna, District Board Member, Hole-Narsipur: That a sum of Rs. 5,000 may be provided for the purpose of a English High School at Hole-Narsipur.

(b) Read also Deputy Commissioner's Letter No. C. 178-26, dated 24th September 1926, in the matter.

Resolution of the Finance Committee:—

"The proposition may be considered when the public of Hole-Narsipur come forward with a liberal quota of contribution."

Resolution.—The District Board resolve that Government may be requested to kindly grant an English High School for Hole-Narsipur immediately, and the District Board will contribute a sum of Rs. 4,000 as a lumpsum contribution out of their surplus funds.

11. (a) to (n) Read Government Orders:—

Resolution.—Recorded.

Next meeting of the District Board—13th November 1926, 12 noon.
